Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10-4-07 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

3. The rejection of claims 4-6 over Saka et al (6,884,386) is withdrawn in view of the translation of the priority document. The rejection over WO 02/24605 is withdrawn in view of the declaration filed under 35 U.S.C. 1.132.

4. Claims 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Japanese document 07-157362 for reasons of record.

5. The declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 filed 10-4-07 is insufficient to overcome the rejection of claims 4-6 based upon the Japanese document as set forth in the last Office action because of the following reasons.

a. The disclosure is silent as to a degree of homogeneous structure. The term "homogeneous" is a qualitative term and is not quantitatively defined in the disclosure as to what is considered homogeneous within the scope of the invention claims. Requiring a certain degree of homogeneousness in the claimed article over that of the prior art would not inherently flow from the instant disclosure.

b. The claims fail to set forth a degree of homogeneousness that distinguishes over the Japanese document therefor the declaration is not considered to be commensurate in scope with the claims.

c. The declaration is silent as to the exact process steps which the examples are formed as well as it is not clear the examples are representative of the teachings of Japanese document.

d. Exhibit 3 is blurry and a clear comparison of the micrographs cannot be made.

e. The declaration fails to set forth any difference in the depth of the dislocation structure from the Japanese document.

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claims 4-6 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 5,6 of copending Application No. 10/599604. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because for reasons of record.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

8. Claims 4-6 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 5, of copending Application No. 10/553849. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because for reasons of record.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

9. The Terminal Disclaimers have not been approved because the signing attorney is not of record.
